This musical score consists of ten staves of music, each containing measures numbered 57 through 95. The notation is written on a single treble clef staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 7/8. The music is characterized by a high density of beamed eighth and sixteenth notes, often appearing in groups of four or six. Many measures contain rests, particularly in the first half of the piece. The final measure (95) features a long, sweeping slur that encompasses a series of beamed notes, suggesting a rapid, continuous melodic line. The overall texture is intricate and rhythmic.
